
Corporations Act 2001

Company Limited by Guarantee

CONSTITUTION

OF

INTERNATIONAL YOUNG PROFESSIONALS FOUNDATION

INTRODUCTION

1 Replaceable Rules Excluded

1.1 The replaceable rules contained in the Law do not apply to the Company.

2 Definitions and Interpretation

2.1 Definitions

In this constitution:

- (a) “business day” means a day that is not a Saturday, a Sunday or a public holiday or bank holiday in the place where the Company has its registered office;
- (b) “Company” means International Young Professionals Foundation;
- (c) “corporate member” means a member which is a body corporate;
- (d) “directors” means the directors for the time being of the Company or the directors assembled as a board;
- (e) “Foundation Members” means the persons who consent to be members on the registration of the Company;
- (f) “Law” means the Corporations Act 2001 and includes any amendment or re-enactment of it or any legislation passed in substitution for it;
- (g) “President” means the President referred to in rule 34.1, elected by the directors to chair their meetings, and to chair any meetings of members as required; and
- (h) “secretary” means the secretary referred to in rule 70 and any other person appointed to perform the duties of a secretary of the Company by the Directors.

2.2 Interpretation

- (a) Reference to:
 - (1) one gender includes the others;
 - (2) the singular includes the plural and the plural includes the singular; and
 - (3) a person includes a body corporate.
- (b) Except so far as the contrary intention appears in this constitution:
 - (1) an expression has in this constitution the same meaning as in the Law; and
 - (2) if an expression is given different meanings for the purposes of different provisions of the Law, the expression has, in a provision of this constitution that deals with a matter dealt with by a particular provision of the Law, the same meaning as in that provision of the Law.
- (c) “Including” and similar expressions are not words of limitation.
- (d) Headings and any table of contents or index are for convenience only and do not form part of this Deed or affect its interpretation.

3 Objects

- 3.1 The objects for which the Company is established are:
 - (a) To promote and encourage the work done by young professionals in effecting positive global change.
 - (b) To facilitate the implementation of projects developed by members to address the issues of concern in the global community, which are consistent with the objects of the company, including the raising of funds where necessary.
 - (c) To further the network formed during the International Young Professionals Summit 2001 and provide an ongoing platform for organisation and convening of future Summits, events and projects.
 - (d) To promote recognition of, mobilise and enhance the capacity of young professionals internationally to provide leadership and take action on global issues;
 - (e) To undertake research and advocacy in regards to issues identified by members as vital to the creation of a preferred global future.

- 3.2 The Company must pursue charitable purposes only and must apply its income in promoting those purposes.

4 Powers

[compare section 124]

- 4.1 The Company has all the powers of an individual and a body corporate but does not have the power to issue shares.
- 4.2 Despite rule 4.1 the powers of the Company are ancillary to and exercisable only to pursue the objects of the Company set out in rule 3.

5 Application of Income and Property

[compare sections 125 and 150]

- 5.1 The income and property of the Company, from wherever it is derived, must be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects of the Company set out in rule 3.

6 No Distribution to Members

[compare section 150]

- 6.1 No portion of the income or property of the Company may be paid directly or indirectly, by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise to the members of the Company.
- 6.2 No fees will be paid to Directors and the Directors will be required to approve all other payments the company makes to its directors.
- 6.3 Rule 6.1 does not prevent:
- (a) the payment in good faith of remuneration to any officer, servant or member of the Company in return for any services actually rendered to the Company or for goods supplied in the ordinary and usual way of business;
 - (b) the payment of interest at a rate not exceeding 12% per annum on money borrowed from any member of the Company;
 - (c) the payment of reasonable and proper rent by the Company to a member of the Company for premises leased by the member to the Company; or
 - (d) subject to rule 6.2 the reimbursement of expenses incurred by any member on behalf of the Company.

7 Limited Liability

7.1 The liability of the members is limited.

8 Guarantee

[compare section 117]

8.1 Every member of the Company undertakes to contribute an amount not exceeding $1 to the property of the Company in the event of its being wound up while the member is a member or within 1 year after the member ceases to be a member, if required for payment:

- (a) of the debts and liabilities of the Company (contracted before the member ceases to be a member);
- (b) of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up; and
- (c) for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves.

MEMBERSHIP

9 Number of Members

9.1 The number of members for which the Company proposes to be registered is unlimited.

10 Membership

10.1 The members of the Company are:

- (a) the Foundation Members; and

- (c) honorary members.

11.2 Additional categories of members, if recommended by the directors, may be created from time to time by the members in general meeting.

12 Application for Full Membership

12.1 Any individual who:

- (a) is not less than 18 years of age at the date of application; and
- (b) makes a commitment to actively participate towards furthering the objectives of the Foundation;
- (c) wishes to become a voting member of the Foundation;
- (d) accepts the responsibilities as a full member detailed in Section 8 may apply for full membership of the Company.

13 Application for Membership

13.1 Any individual who:

- (a) is not less than 18 years of age at the date of application; and
- (b) makes a commitment to actively participate towards furthering the objectives of the Foundation; may apply for membership of the Company.

14 Form of Application

14.1 An application for membership must be:

- (a) in writing in a form approved by the directors;
- (b) signed by the applicant;
- (c) signed by the proposer and seconder, each of whom must be members; and
- (d) accompanied by any other documents or evidence as to qualification for the type of membership applied for which the directors require.

14.2 If the applicant is a body corporate it must nominate 1 person (“nominated representative”) to represent it in the Company. The application form must:

- (a) state the name and address of the nominated representative; and
- (b) be signed by the nominated representative.

14.3 An application form must be accompanied by:

- (a) an application fee, if any, determined in accordance with rule 20.1; and
- (b) the annual subscription, determined in accordance with rule 21.

15 Admission to Membership

- 15.1 The directors must consider an application for membership as soon as practicable after its receipt and determine, in their discretion, the admission or rejection of the applicant.
- 15.2 The directors need give no reason for the rejection of an application.
- 15.3 If an application for membership is rejected the application fee, if any, and the annual subscription must be refunded to the applicant.
- 15.4 If an applicant is accepted for membership:
- (a) the Secretary must notify the applicant of admission in the form of a receipt for the application fee, if any, and annual subscription or in any other form the directors determine; and
 - (b) the name and details of the member must be entered in the register of members.

16 Notification by Members

- 16.1 Each member must promptly notify the Secretary in writing of any change in their qualification to be a member of the Company.
- 16.2 Each corporate member must promptly notify the Secretary in writing of any change in the person nominated as its nominated representative under rule 14.2.
- 16.3 A person nominated as a nominated representative must consent to the nomination in writing.

17 Foundation Members

- 17.1 Foundation Members who have signed this constitution before the Company is registered become full members of the Company on registration of the Company.
- 17.2 Foundation Members are not required:
- (a) to have any qualification for membership;
 - (b) to pay any application fee; or
 - (c) to pay an annual subscription until 1 July next occurring after registration of the Company.
- 17.3 Foundation Members must otherwise comply with this constitution.

18 Honorary Membership

- 18.1 If, in the opinion of the directors, a person, not being a member of the Company, has made over a period of years a significant contribution to the Company, the directors may nominate that person as an honorary member of the Company.
- 18.2 A person nominated under rule 18.1 becomes an honorary member of the Company on the later to occur of:
- (a) the person consenting in writing to be an honorary member; and
 - (b) the nomination being approved by an ordinary resolution of members at a general meeting.
- 18.3 An honorary member which is a body corporate may, but need not, nominate a nominated representative.
- 18.4 An honorary member has no rights and privileges of membership, other than the right to receive notices of and attend and be heard at any general meeting, and is otherwise subject to this constitution.

19 Register of Members

[compare sections 168 and 169]

- 19.1 A register of members of the Company must be kept in accordance with the Law.
- 19.2 The following must be entered in the register of members in respect of each member:
- (a) the full name of the member;
 - (b) the residential address, facsimile number and electronic mail address, if any, of the member;
 - (c) the category of membership;
 - (d) the date of admission to and cessation of membership;
 - (e) the date of last payment of the member's annual subscription;
 - (f) in the case of a corporate member, the full name, address, facsimile number and electronic mail address, if any, of its nominated representative; and
 - (g) such other information as the directors require.

- 19.3 Each member and nominated representative must notify the Secretary in writing of any change in that person's name, address, facsimile number or electronic mail address within 1 month after the change.

APPLICATION FEE AND ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTION

20 Application Fee

- 20.1 The application fee payable by each applicant for membership is the sum the directors determine for each category of membership.
- 20.2 No application fee is payable by any honorary member.

21 Annual Subscription

- 21.1 The annual subscription payable by a member of the Company is the sum the directors determine and the Company approves in general meeting.
- 21.2 Until the Company otherwise resolves the annual subscription:
- (a) for a full member, being an individual, is $1.00;
 - (b) for a full member, being a body corporate, is $1.00;
 - (c) for a member, being an individual, is $1.00; and
 - (d) for a member, being a body corporate, is $1.00.
- 21.3 All annual subscriptions are due and payable in advance on 1 July in each year.
- 21.4 If a person is admitted to membership of the Company during the months of January to June inclusive the directors may reduce the annual subscription payable by the applicant in any manner they see fit.
- 21.5 No annual subscription is payable by any life member or honorary member.

22 Unpaid Annual Subscriptions

- 22.1 If:
- (a) the annual subscription of a member remains unpaid for 2 months after it becomes payable; and
 - (b) a notice of default is given to the member following a resolution of the directors to do this;

the member ceases to be entitled to any of the rights or privileges of membership but these may be reinstated on payment of all arrears if the directors see fit.

CESSATION OF MEMBERSHIP

23 Resignation

23.1 A member may resign from membership of the Company by giving written notice to the Secretary.

23.2 The resignation of a member takes effect on the date of receipt of the notice of resignation or any later date provided in the notice.

24 Failure to Pay

24.1 If a member has not paid all arrears of annual subscriptions under rule 21 or, if paid, the member's rights and privileges are not reinstated:

- (a) the member remains liable for all the obligations and liabilities of membership until the expiration of 6 months after the date of notification under rule 22.1(b); and
- (b) the member ceases to be a member and member's name must be removed from the register of members at the expiration of the 6 month period.

25 Cessation of Membership

25.1 A member who is an individual ceases to be a member:

- (a) on the death of the member; or
- (b) if the member is expelled under rule 26.

25.2 A corporate member ceases to be a member:

- (a) if it is wound up or is otherwise dissolved or deregistered; or
- (b) if it is expelled under rule 26.

25.3 A life member or an honorary member ceases to be a member:

- (a) if the member is an individual, in accordance with rule 25.1;
- (b) if the member is a corporate member, in accordance with rule 25.2; or
- (c) if the directors, for any reason, request in writing the resignation of the member and the member does not resign within 2 months after the request is sent.

26 Disciplining Members

26.1 If any member:

- (a) wilfully refuses or neglects to comply with the provisions of this constitution; or
- (b) is guilty of any conduct which, in the opinion of the directors, is unbecoming of a member or prejudicial to the interest of the Company;

the directors may resolve to censure, fine, suspend or expel the member from the Company and, in the case of expulsion, to remove the member's name from the register of members.

26.2 In exercising their powers under rule 26.1 the directors must not fine a member an amount exceeding the annual subscription of a full member, being an individual (whether or not the member is an individual or a body corporate, or is liable to pay an annual subscription).

26.3 At least 1 week before the meeting of the directors at which a resolution of the nature referred to in rule 26.1 is passed the directors must give to the member notice of:

- (a) the meeting;
- (b) what is alleged against the member; and
- (c) the intended resolution.

26.4 At the meeting and before the passing of the resolution, the member must have an opportunity of giving orally or in writing any explanation or defence the member sees fit.

26.5 A member may, by notice in writing lodged with the Secretary at least 24 hours before the time for holding the meeting at which the resolution is to be considered by the directors, elect to have the question dealt with by the Company in general meeting and in that event, a general meeting of the Company must be called for that purpose.

26.6 If at the meeting a resolution to the same effect as the resolution which was to be considered by the directors is passed by a majority of 2/3 of those present and voting (and the vote must be taken by secret ballot), the member concerned must be punished in the manner resolved and in the case of a resolution for expulsion the member is expelled and the member's name must be removed from the register of members.

26.7 If any member ceases to be a member under rule 26.6, the directors may reinstate the member and restore the name of that member to the register of members upon and subject to any terms and conditions they see fit.

27 Effect of Cessation of Membership

- 27.1 If any member ceases to be a member under this constitution, the member remains liable to pay to the Company for any money which, at the time of the member ceasing to be a member, the member owes to the Company on any account and for any sum not exceeding $100 for which the member is liable under rule 8 of this constitution.

APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

28 Number of Directors

[compare section 201A]

- 28.1 The number of the directors must be not less than 3.
- 28.2 The Company in general meeting may by resolution increase or reduce the number of directors but the number may not be reduced below 3.

29 Directors' Qualifications

- 29.1 No person may be a director unless that person is a full member or a life member (which includes a paid life member) of the Company or is the nominated representative of a corporate full member.

30 First Directors

- 30.1 The first directors are those named in the application for registration of the Company.
- 30.2 The first directors hold office until the termination of the first annual general meeting of the Company but, subject to this constitution, are eligible for election at that meeting. If they resign before the first annual general meeting, they may be replaced at a general meeting before the first annual general meeting, and their replacements hold office until the termination of the first annual general meeting.
- 30.3 At the first annual general meeting 6 directors will be elected. Three of the six directors elected at the first annual general meeting will hold office until the termination of the third annual general meeting of the Company but, subject to this constitution, are eligible for election at that meeting. If they resign before the third annual general meeting, they may be replaced at a general meeting before the third annual general meeting, and their replacements hold office until the termination of the third annual general meeting. The other three directors will hold office until the termination of the second annual general meeting but, subject to this constitution, are eligible for election at that meeting. If they resign before the second annual general meeting, they may be replaced at a general meeting before the second annual general meeting, and their replacements hold office until the termination of the second annual general meeting.

31 Election of Directors

[compare section 201E and replaceable rule 201G]

- 31.1 3 directors are elected at each annual general meeting of the Company, except for the first annual general meeting as detailed at 30.3.
- 31.2 An elected director holds office until the termination of the second annual general meeting held after his or her election.

32 Nomination for Election

- 32.1 Each candidate for election as a director must:
- (a) be proposed by a full member or the nominated representative of a full corporate member; and
 - (b) be seconded by another full member or the nominated representative of another full corporate member;
- both of which members must be current financial members of the Company at the time of nomination.
- 32.2 No full member or nominated representative of a full member may propose more than 1 person as a candidate but may second more than 1 nomination.
- 32.3 A nomination of a candidate for election must:
- (a) be in writing;
 - (b) be signed by the candidate; and
 - (c) be signed by the proposer and seconder.
- 32.4 A nomination of a candidate for election must be received at the registered office of the Company not later than 5 p.m. on the day which is 30 days prior to the annual general meeting at which the candidate seeks election.
- 32.5 A list of the candidates' names in alphabetical order together with the proposers' and seconds' names must be sent to members with the notice of the annual general meeting.

33 Election Procedure - Directors

- 33.1 If the number of candidates for election as directors is equal to or less than the number of vacancies on the board the chair of the annual general meeting must declare those candidates to be duly elected as directors.

- 33.2 If the number of candidates for election as directors is greater than the number of vacancies on the board a ballot must be held for the election of the candidates.
- 33.3 If a ballot is required balloting lists must be prepared listing the names of the candidates only in alphabetical order.
- 33.4 At the annual general meeting each person entitled to vote and voting on the ballot may vote for a number of candidates equal to the number of vacancies.
- 33.5 The candidates receiving the greatest number of votes cast in their favour must be declared by the chair of the meeting to be elected as directors.
- 33.6 If an equality of votes would otherwise prevent the successful candidate for a vacancy from being determined, the chair, prior to the declaration of the result of the ballot, in addition to his or her deliberative vote (if any) is entitled to a casting vote, except that if the chair:
- (a) does not exercise a casting vote; or
 - (b) is one of the candidates who received the same number of votes;
- then the names of the candidates who received the same number of votes must be put to a further ballot immediately.

34 Office Bearers

- 34.1 The Directors shall appoint the following office bearers of the Company:
- (a) the President;
 - (b) the Vice-President;
 - (c) the Treasurer; and
 - (d) the Secretary
- 34.2 The Company in general meeting may by resolution and the directors may at any time create any position of office bearer not already specified in rule 34.1, where the directors deem that the position created will further the objects of the Company. If office bearers are created, they will also be appointed by the Directors.

35 First Office Bearers and Subsequent Appointment at Board Meeting

- 35.1 The first office bearers of the Company are appointed by the first directors appointed under rule 30. They hold office until the termination of the first annual general meeting of the Company.

- 35.2 Subsequent office bearers are appointed by the directors at the first meeting of the directors held after the immediately preceding annual general meeting and hold office until the termination of the next annual general meeting.

36 Eligibility and Nomination

- 36.1 Except for the Secretary, only directors may be office bearers. A director is eligible for appointment to any office bearer position.
- 36.2 Each director standing for appointment as an office bearer must be proposed by another director.
- 36.3 If a director stands for appointment for more than 1 position as an office bearer separate nominations must be received in respect of each position.
- 36.4 A nomination may be:
- (a) in writing, received by the Secretary not less than 24 hours prior to the board meeting at which the appointment of office bearers is to take place and signed by the candidate and the proposer; or
 - (b) made orally at the meeting, provided that the candidate is available to attend before the directors at the meeting and consents to the nomination.

37 Election Procedure - Office Bearers

- 37.1 The election of the office bearers is held in the order in which the positions are listed in rule 35.1.
- 37.2 If there is only 1 candidate for election to any office bearer position that person is declared elected to that position.
- 37.3 If there is more than 1 candidate for election to any office bearer position a ballot must be held among the candidates. The candidate receiving the greatest number of votes cast in his or her favour is declared elected to that position.
- 37.4 In the case of an equality of votes in respect of any position a further ballot must be held immediately but if there is still an equality of votes the successful candidate must be determined by lot.
- 37.5 If a director is elected to a position as office bearer then his or her nomination, if any, for any other position must be treated as withdrawn before the election is held in respect of the other position or positions.
- 37.6 Subject to this rule 37 a ballot is conducted in the manner the directors determine.

APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS BETWEEN AGMS

38 Casual Vacancies and Additional Directors

[compare replaceable rules 201G and 201H]

- 38.1 The Company in general meeting may by resolution and the directors may at any time appoint a person qualified to be a director, either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the existing directors, but so that the total number of directors does not at any time exceed the number fixed in accordance with this constitution.
- 38.2 Any director appointed under rule 38.1 holds office until the termination of the next annual general meeting of the Company and is then eligible for re-election.

39 Insufficient Directors

[compare replaceable rule 201H]

- 39.1 In the event of a vacancy or vacancies in the office of a director or offices of directors, the remaining directors may act, but if the number of remaining directors is not sufficient to constitute a quorum at a meeting of directors, they may act only for the purpose of increasing the number of directors to a number sufficient to constitute a quorum or convening a general meeting of the Company.

ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

[compare replaceable rule 201K]

40 Appointment

- 40.1 A director may appoint any person who is qualified to be a director and who is approved by a majority of the other directors to act as an alternate director in place of the appointing director for a meeting or for a specified period.
- 40.2 An alternate director is not taken into account for the purpose of rule 28.

41 Rights and Powers of Alternate Director

- 41.1 An alternate director is entitled to notice of meetings of the directors and, if the appointor is not present at a meeting, is entitled to attend and vote in his or her stead.
- 41.2 When an alternate director exercises the director's powers, the exercise of the power is just as effective as if the powers were exercised by the director.

42 Suspension or Revocation of Appointment

- 42.1 A director may revoke or suspend the appointment of an alternate director appointed by him or her.
- 42.2 The directors may suspend or remove an alternate director by resolution after giving the appointor reasonable notice of their intention to do so.

43 Form of Appointment, Suspension or Revocation

- 43.1 Every appointment, revocation or suspension under rules 40 or 42.1 must be in writing and a copy must be given to the Company. The notice may be given by facsimile.

44 Termination of Appointment

- 44.1 The appointment of an alternate director automatically determines:
- (a) if the appointor ceases to hold office as director;
 - (b) on the happening in respect of the alternate director of any event which causes a director to vacate the office of director; or
 - (c) if the alternate director resigns from the appointment by written notice left at the registered office of the Company.

45 Power to Act as Alternate for More than 1 Director

- 45.1 A director or any other person may act as alternate director to represent more than 1 director.

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

46 Validation of Acts of Directors and Secretaries

[compare sections 201M and 204E]

- 46.1 The acts of a director or Secretary of the Company are valid despite any defect that may afterwards be discovered in his or her appointment or qualification.
- 46.2 Where a person whose office as director of the Company is vacated under a provision of the Law purports to do an act as a director of the Company, that act is as valid, in relation to a person dealing with the Company in good faith and for value and without actual knowledge of the matter because of which the office was vacated, as if the office had not been vacated.

47 General Business Management

[compare replaceable rule 198A]

- 47.1 The business of the Company is to be managed by or under the direction of the directors.
- 47.2 The directors may exercise all the powers of the Company except any powers that the Law or this constitution requires the Company to exercise in general meeting.
- 47.3 No rule made or resolution passed by the Company in general meeting can invalidate any prior act of the directors which would have been valid if that rule or resolution had not been made or passed.
- 47.4 The directors may pay all expenses incurred in promoting and forming the Company.

48 Borrowing Powers

- 48.1 Without limiting the generality of rule 47, but subject to rule 6, the directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow money, to charge any property or business of the Company and to issue debentures or give any other security for a debt, liability or obligation of the Company or of any other person.

49 Appointment of Attorney

- 49.1 The directors may appoint any person or persons to be the attorney or attorneys of the Company for the purposes, with the powers and discretions (being powers and discretions vested in or exercisable by the directors), for the period and subject to the conditions they see fit.
- 49.2 A power of attorney may contain those provisions for the protection and convenience of persons dealing with the attorney that the directors see fit and may also authorise the attorney to delegate all or any of the powers and discretions vested in the attorney.

50 Negotiable Instruments

[compare replaceable rule 198B]

- 50.1 Any 2 directors may sign, draw, accept, endorse or otherwise execute a negotiable instrument.
- 50.2 The directors may determine that a negotiable instrument, including a class of negotiable instrument, may be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed or otherwise executed in a different way.

EXECUTIVE OFFICER

[compare replaceable rule 201J]

51 Power to Appoint

51.1 The directors may appoint any person, not being a director, to the position of an executive officer for the period and on the terms (including as to remuneration) the directors see fit.

51.2 The Company in general meeting may by resolution and the directors may at any time create any position of executive officer not already specified in rule 51.1, where the directors deem that the position created will further the objects of the Company.

52 Not a Member of the Board

52.1 An executive officer is not a member of the board of the Company but may attend meetings of the directors except where the directors otherwise request.

53 Powers

53.1 The directors may, upon terms and conditions and with any restrictions they see fit, confer on an executive officer any of the powers that the directors can exercise.

53.2 Any powers so conferred may be concurrent with, or to the exclusion of, the powers of the directors.

54 Withdrawal of Appointment or Powers

54.1 The directors may revoke or vary:

- (a) an appointment; or
- (b) any of the powers conferred on an executive officer.

55 Temporary Appointments

55.1 If an executive officer becomes incapable of acting in that capacity the directors may appoint any other person, not being a director, to act temporarily as executive officer.

COMMITTEES OF DIRECTORS AND REGIONAL BRANCHES

56 Committees of Directors

[compare replaceable rule 198D]

- 56.1 The directors may delegate any of their powers to a committee of directors.
- 56.2 A committee must exercise the powers delegated to it in accordance with any directions of the directors. The effect of the committee exercising a power in this way is the same as if the directors exercised it.
- 56.3 The meetings and proceedings of any committee consisting of 2 or more directors are governed by the provisions in this constitution regulating the meetings and proceedings of the directors.

57 Regional Branches and Administration

- 57.1 The directors may provide for the management and administration of the affairs of the Company in any specified region or locality in the manner they see fit.
- 57.2 Without limiting the operation of rule 57.1 the directors may:
 - (a) establish any regional or local committees or branches;
 - (b) appoint any members of the Company or any nominated representative of a corporate member to be a member of the local committee or branch;
 - (c) appoint any managers or agents, fix their remuneration and delegate to them any of the powers vested in the directors; and
 - (d) authorise the members for the time being of the local committee or branch to fill any vacancies on it and to act despite vacancies.
- 57.3 A local committee or branch may remove any person appointed under rule 57.2(c) and may revoke or vary the delegation but no person dealing in good faith and without notice of the revocation or variation is affected by it.

REMOVAL AND RESIGNATION OF DIRECTORS

58 Removal of Directors

[compare section 203D]

- 58.1 Subject to the Law the Company may by resolution remove a director from office.

59 Resignation of Director

[replaceable rule 203A]

- 59.1 A director may resign as a director of the Company by giving a written notice of resignation to the Company at its registered office.

60 Vacation of Office of Director

[compare section 206B]

- 60.1 In addition to any other circumstances in which the office of a director becomes vacant under the Law, the office of a director becomes vacant if the director:
- (a) becomes bankrupt or suspends payment or compounds with his or her creditors;
 - (b) becomes of unsound mind or a person whose person or estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under the law relating to mental health;
 - (c) is absent from 3 consecutive meetings of directors without special leave of absence from the directors and the directors declare his or her seat to be vacant;
 - (d) ceases to be qualified as a director under rule 29;
 - (e) becomes prohibited from being a director under or by reason of any order made under the Law;
 - (f) is removed by resolution in accordance with rule 58; or
 - (g) resigns from office in accordance with rule 59.

DIRECTORS' INTERESTS

61 Prohibition on Being Present or Voting

[compare section 195]

- 61.1 Except where permitted by the Law a director who has a material personal interest in a matter that is being considered at a meeting of directors:
- (a) must not be counted in a quorum;
 - (b) must not vote on the matter; and
 - (c) must not be present while the matter is being considered at the meeting.
- 61.2 If a director who has a material personal interest in a matter that is being considered at a meeting of the directors is not prohibited by the Law from being present at the meeting and voting, the director may be present, be counted in the quorum and may be heard but may not vote on the matter.

62 Director to Disclose Interests

[compare section 191]

- 62.1 A director who is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, interested in a contract or proposed contract with the Company must, as soon as practicable after the relevant facts have come to the director's knowledge, declare the nature of the interest at a meeting of the directors or by written notice to the Secretary of the Company.
- 62.2 A director who holds any office or possesses any property by which, whether directly or indirectly, duties or interests might be created in conflict with his or her duties or interests as director must declare at a meeting of the directors of the Company or by written notice to the Secretary of the Company the fact and the nature, character and extent of the conflict.
- 62.3 For the purposes of rules 62.1 and 62.2, a director's interest or any conflict must be disregarded if it arises from or relates solely to:
- (a) a guarantee to be given by the director (or by persons including the director or by a body corporate of which the director is a member or officer) in respect of a loan to the Company; or
 - (b) the position of the director as a director of a related body corporate.

63 Effect of Interest in Contract

[compare replaceable rule 194]

- 63.1 If a director has an interest in a contract or proposed contract with the Company (other than as a member), or a conflicting interest or duty in relation to any other matter being considered by the directors, and the director discloses the nature and extent of the interest or duty at a meeting of the directors or by written notice to the Secretary of the Company:
- (a) the contract may be entered into; and
 - (b) if the disclosure is made before the contract is entered into:
 - (1) the director may retain benefits under the contract even though the director has an interest in the contract;
 - (2) the Company cannot avoid the contract merely because of the existence of the interest; and
 - (3) the director is not disqualified from the office of director.
- 63.2 For the purposes of rule 63.1 "contract" includes an arrangement, dealing or other transaction.

64 Other Interests

64.1 Without limiting rule 62 or rule 63 a director may to the extent permitted by this constitution and the Law:

- (a) hold any place of profit under the Company (other than the office of auditor) in conjunction with the office of director;
- (b) be interested in any operation, undertaking or business undertaken or assisted by the Company or in which the Company is or may be interested.

65 Extension of Meaning of “Company”

65.1 For the purposes of rules 62, 63 and 64 “Company” includes any subsidiary of the Company and any other company in which the Company or any subsidiary of the Company is or becomes a shareholder or is otherwise interested.

66 Other Directorships and Shareholdings

66.1 A director of the Company may be or become a director, officer, employee or member of any company promoted by the Company or in which the Company may be interested as a vendor, shareholder or otherwise and is not accountable for any reasonable benefits received as a director, officer, employee or member of the other company.

66.2 Subject to the Law:

- (a) the directors of the Company may exercise the voting power conferred by the shares or other interest held by the Company in another company in favour of a resolution appointing themselves or any of them as directors or other officers of the other company;
- (b) any director of the Company may vote at a meeting of directors of the Company in favour of a resolution that the Company exercises its voting power conferred by the shares or other interest held by the Company in the other company to appoint that director as a director or other officer of the other company;
- (c) any director of the Company may be appointed as representative of the Company and may vote at a general meeting of the other company in favour of a resolution appointing that director as a director or other officer of the other company; and
- (d) a director of the Company who is also a director of the other company may vote as a director of the other company in whatever manner he or she sees fit, including voting in favour of a resolution appointing the director to any other office in the other company and a resolution appointing any other directors of the Company as directors or other officers of the other company.

REMUNERATION OF DIRECTORS

67 No Directors' Remuneration

[compare section 150]

67.1 Despite rule 6.2 no director may receive any remuneration for his or her services in his or her capacity as a director of the Company.

68 Directors' Expenses

68.1 Despite rule 67 the Company may pay the directors' travelling and other expenses that they properly incur:

- (a) in attending directors' meetings or any meetings of committees of directors;
- (b) in attending any general meetings of the Company; and
- (c) in connection with the Company's business.

69 Financial Benefit

[compare Chapter 2E - sections 207 and following]

69.1 To the extent, if any, required by the Law, a director must ensure that the requirements of the Law are complied with in relation to any financial benefit given by the Company to the director or to any other related party of the director.

SECRETARY

70 Terms of Office of Secretary

[compare replaceable rule 204F]

70.1 The Secretary is an office bearer of the Company.

70.2 The Secretary is either elected as with other office bearers as outlined in sections 34, 35, 36 and 37 from within the elected company directors, or appointed by the elected directors as part of their duties in the first meeting after an annual general meeting from outside those elected directors in accordance with rule 36.1.

70.3 The Secretary of the Company holds office on the terms and conditions (including as to remuneration) that the directors determine.

INDEMNITY AND INSURANCE

71 Indemnity [compare section 199A]

71.1 To the extent permitted by the Law, the Company indemnifies:

- (a) every person who is or has been an officer of the Company; and
- (b) where the board of directors considers it appropriate to do so, any person who is or has been an officer of a related body corporate of the Company;

against any liability incurred by that person in his or her capacity as an officer of the Company or of the related body corporate (as the case may be).

71.2 In accordance with section 199A of the Law, the Company must not indemnify a person against:

- (a) any of the following liabilities incurred as an officer of the Company:
 - (1) a liability owed to the Company or a related body corporate;
 - (2) a liability for a pecuniary penalty order under section 1317G of the Law or a compensation order under section 1317H of the Law; or
 - (3) a liability that is owed to someone other than the Company or a related body corporate and did not arise out of conduct in good faith; or
- (b) legal costs incurred in defending an action for a liability incurred as an officer of the Company if the costs are incurred:
 - (1) in defending or resisting proceedings in which the person is found to have a liability for which they could not be indemnified under rule 71.2(a);
 - (2) in defending or resisting criminal proceedings in which the person is found guilty;
 - (3) in defending or resisting proceedings brought by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission or a liquidator for a court order if the grounds for making the order are found by the Court to have been established; or
 - (4) in connection with proceedings for relief to the person under the Law in which the Court denies the relief.

Rule 71.2(b)(3) does not apply to costs incurred in responding to actions taken by the Australian Securities and Investment Commission or a liquidator as part of an investigation before commencing proceedings for a court order.

- (c) For the purposes of rule 71.2(b) the outcome of proceedings is the outcome of the proceedings and any appeal in relation to the proceedings.

72 Insurance

[compare section 241A]

72.1 The Company may pay or agree to pay a premium in respect of a contract insuring a person who is or has been an officer of the Company or a related body corporate of the Company against any liability incurred by the person as an officer of the Company or a related body corporate except a liability (other than one for legal costs) arising out of:

- (a) conduct involving a wilful breach of duty in relation to the Company; or
(b) a contravention of section 182 or 183 of the Law.

72.2 In the case of a director, any premium paid under this rule is not remuneration for the purpose of rule 67.

73 Director Voting on Contract of Insurance

[compare section 191(2)(vi)]

73.1 Despite anything in this constitution, a director is not precluded from voting in respect of any contract or proposed contract of insurance, merely because the contract insures or would insure the director against a liability incurred by the director as an officer of the Company or of a related body corporate.

74 Liability

74.1 No officer of the Company is liable for the act, neglect or default of any other officer or for joining in any act or for any other loss, expense or damage which arises in the execution of the duties of his or her office unless it arises through his or her own negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust.

75 Meaning of "Officer"

75.1 For the purposes of rules 71, 72, 73 and 74, "officer" means a director, Secretary or executive officer.

INSPECTION OF RECORDS

76 Rights of Inspection

[compare replaceable rule 247D and sections 173, 247A and 251B]

76.1 The directors of the Company, or the Company by a resolution passed at a general meeting, may authorise a member to inspect books of the Company.

- 76.2 A member other than a director does not have the right to inspect any document of the Company, other than the minute books for the meetings of its members and for resolution of members passed without meetings, except as provided by law or authorised by the directors or by the Company in general meeting.

77 Confidential Information

- 77.1 Except as provided by the Law, no member (not being a director) is entitled to require or receive any information concerning the business, trading or customers of the Company or any trade secret, secret process or other confidential information of or used by the Company.

DIRECTORS' MEETINGS

[compare sections 248A to 248G]

78 Circulating Resolutions

[compare replaceable rule 248A]

- 78.1 The directors may pass a resolution without a directors' meeting being held if all the directors entitled to vote on the resolution, except a director absent from Australia who has not left a facsimile number at which he or she may be given notice, sign a document containing a statement that he or she is in favour of the resolution set out in the document.
- 78.2 Separate copies of a document may be used for signing by directors if the wording of the resolution and statement is identical in each copy.
- 78.3 The resolution is passed when the last director signs.
- 78.4 A facsimile addressed to or received by the Company and purporting to be signed or sent by a director for the purpose of this rule 78 must be treated as a document in writing signed by that director.

79 Meetings of Directors

- 79.1 The directors may meet together for the dispatch of business and adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they see fit.
- 79.2 The minutes of any meeting of the directors must state the method of meeting and the persons present.

80 Calling Directors' Meetings

[compare replaceable rule 248C]

- 80.1 A director may at any time, and a Secretary must on the requisition of a director, call a meeting of the directors.

81 Notice of Meeting

[compare replaceable rule 248C]

- 81.1 Reasonable notice of every directors' meeting must be given to each director and alternate director except that it is not necessary to give notice of a meeting of directors to any director who:
- (a) has been given special leave of absence; or
 - (b) is absent from Australia and has not left a facsimile number at which he or she may be given notice.
- 81.2 Any notice of a meeting of directors may be given in writing or orally, and whether by facsimile, telephone, electronic mail or any other means of communication.

82 Technology Meeting of Directors

[compare section 248D]

- 82.1 A directors' meeting may be held using any technology consented to by all the directors. The consent may be a standing one. A director may only withdraw the consent within a reasonable period before the meeting.
- 82.2 If a directors' meeting is held using any technology and all the directors take part in the meeting, they must be treated as having consented to the use of the technology for that meeting.
- 82.3 The following provisions apply to a technology meeting:
- (a) each of the directors taking part in the meeting must be able to hear and be heard by each of the other directors taking part in the meeting; and
 - (b) at the commencement of the meeting each director must announce his or her presence to all the other directors taking part in the meeting.
- 82.4 If the Secretary is not present at a technology meeting one of the directors present must take minutes of the meeting.
- 82.5 A director may not leave a technology meeting by disconnecting his or her link to the meeting unless that director has previously notified the chair of the meeting.
- 82.6 A director is conclusively presumed to have been present and to have formed part of a quorum at all times during a technology meeting unless that director has previously obtained the express consent of the chair to leave the meeting.

83 Chairing Directors' Meetings

[compare replaceable rule 248E]

- 83.1 The President is the chair of all meetings of the directors.
- 83.2 At a meeting of directors if:
- (a) the President is not present within 10 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act as chair of the meeting, then the Vice-President is the chair of the meeting; but if
 - (b) the Vice-President is not present within 10 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act as chair of the meeting, then the directors present must appoint a director present to chair the meeting.

84 Quorum

[compare replaceable rule 248F]

- 84.1 The quorum for a directors' meeting is 3 directors entitled to vote or a greater number determined by the directors. The quorum must be present at all times during the meeting.
- 84.2 An alternate director is counted in a quorum at a meeting at which the director who appointed the alternate is not present (so long as the alternate is, under the Law, entitled to vote).

85 Passing of Directors' Resolutions

[compare replaceable rule 248G]

- 85.1 A resolution of the directors must be passed by a majority of the votes cast by directors entitled to vote on the resolution.
- 85.2 The chair has a casting vote if necessary in addition to any vote he or she has as a director. The chair has a discretion both as to whether or not to use the casting vote and as to the way in which it is used.
- 85.3 A person who is an alternate director is entitled (in addition to his or her own vote if he or she is a director) to 1 vote on behalf of each director whom he or she represents as an alternate director at the meeting and who is not present at the meeting.

MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

86 Circulating Resolutions

[compare section 249A]

- 86.1 This rule 86 applies to resolutions which the Law, or this constitution, requires or permits to be passed at a general meeting, except a resolution under section 329 of the Law to remove an auditor.
- 86.2 The Company may pass a resolution without a general meeting being held if all the members entitled to vote on the resolution sign a document containing a statement that they are in favour of the resolution set out in the document.
- 86.3 Separate copies of a document may be used for signing by members if the wording of the resolution and statement is identical in each copy.
- 86.4 The resolution is passed when the last member signs.
- 86.5 If the Company receives by facsimile transmission a copy of a document referred to in this rule 86 it is entitled to assume that the copy is a true copy.

87 Calling of General Meeting

[compare sections 250N, replaceable rule 249C and section 249D]

- 87.1 A majority of directors may call a general meeting whenever they see fit.
- 87.2 Except as permitted by law, a general meeting, to be called the “annual general meeting”, must be held at least once in every calendar year.
- 87.3 Except as provided in the Law, no member or members may call a general meeting.

88 Amount of Notice of Meeting

[compare section 249H]

- 88.1 Subject to the provisions of the Law as to short notice, at least 21 days’ notice of a general meeting must be given in writing to those persons who are entitled to receive notices from the Company.

89 Persons Entitled to Notice of General Meeting

[compare sections 249J(1) and 249K, and replaceable rule 249J(2)]

- 89.1 Written notice of a meeting of the Company’s members must be given individually to:
 - (a) each member entitled to vote at the meeting;
 - (b) each director; and

- (c) the Company's auditor.

89.2 No other person is entitled to receive notice of general meetings.

90 How Notice is Given

[compare section 249J(3)]

90.1 The Company may give the notice of meeting to a member:

- (a) personally;
- (b) by sending it by post to the address for the member in the register of members or the alternative address (if any) nominated by the member; or
- (c) by sending it to the facsimile number or electronic address (if any) nominated by the member.

91 When Notice is Given

[compare replaceable rule 249J(4)]

91.1 A notice of meeting sent by post is taken to be given 3 days after it is posted.

91.2 Except as provided by rule 91.3, a notice of meeting sent by facsimile, or other electronic means, is taken to be given on the business day after it is sent.

91.3 Service by facsimile or electronic mail is not effective if:

- (a) in the case of service by facsimile, the Company's facsimile machine issues a transmission report which shows that the transmission was unsuccessful;
- (b) in the case of service by electronic mail, the Company's computer reports that delivery has failed; or
- (c) in either case the addressee notifies the Company immediately that the notice was not fully received in a legible form.

91.4 A certificate signed by any manager, Secretary, director or other officer of the Company that the notice was posted or given in accordance with this rule 91 is conclusive evidence of the matter.

92 Period of Notice

92.1 Subject to the Law and this constitution where a specified number of days' notice or notice extending over any period is required to be given the day of service is not, but the day upon which the notice will expire is, included in the number of days or other period.

93 Contents of Notice

[compare replaceable rule 249L]

93.1 A notice of a general meeting must:

- (a) set out the place, date and time for the meeting (and, if the meeting is to be held in 2 or more places, the technology that will be used to facilitate this);
- (b) state the general nature of the meeting's business;
- (c) if a special resolution is to be proposed at the meeting, set out an intention to propose the special resolution and state the resolution; and
- (d) contain a statement setting out the following information:
 - (1) that the member has a right to appoint a proxy; and
 - (2) that the proxy need not be a member of the Company.

94 Notice of Adjourned Meeting

[replaceable rule 249M]

94.1 When a meeting is adjourned, new notice of the resumed meeting must be given if the meeting is adjourned for 1 month or more.

95 Accidental Omission to Give Notice

[compare section 1322(3)]

95.1 The accidental omission to give notice of any general meeting to or the non-receipt of the notice by any person entitled to receive notice of a general meeting under this constitution does not invalidate the proceedings at or any resolution passed at the meeting.

96 Postponement of General Meeting

96.1 The directors may postpone the holding of any general meeting whenever they see fit (other than a meeting requisitioned by members as provided by the Law) for not more than 42 days after the date for which it was originally called.

96.2 Whenever any meeting is postponed (as distinct from being adjourned under rule 98.3 or rule 99.3) the same period of notice of the meeting must be given to persons entitled to receive notice of a meeting as if a new meeting were being called for the date to which the original meeting is postponed.

97 Technology

[section 249S]

- 97.1 The Company may hold a meeting of its members at 2 or more venues using any technology that gives the members as a whole a reasonable opportunity to participate.

98 Quorum

[compare replaceable rule 249T]

- 98.1 The quorum for a meeting of the Company's members is 3 persons entitled to vote and the quorum must be present at all times during the meeting.
- 98.2 In determining whether a quorum is present, individuals attending as proxies or body corporate representatives are counted. If an individual is attending both as a member and as a proxy or body corporate representative, the individual is counted only once.
- 98.3 If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time for the meeting set out in the notice of meeting:
- (a) where the meeting was called by the members or upon the requisition of members, the meeting is dissolved; or
 - (b) in any other case, the meeting is adjourned to the date, time and place the directors specify. If the directors do not specify 1 or more of those things, the meeting is adjourned to:
 - (1) if the date is not specified - the same day in the next week;
 - (2) if the time is not specified - the same time; and
 - (3) if the place is not specified - the same place.
- 98.4 If no quorum is present at the resumed meeting within 30 minutes after the time for the meeting, the meeting is dissolved.

99 Chair at General Meetings

[compare replaceable rule 249U]

- 99.1 The President of the Company, if present, presides as chair at every general meeting.
- 99.2 Where a general meeting is held and:
- (a) there is no President of the Company; or
 - (b) the President is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act;

then the Vice-President of the Company if present presides as chair of the meeting or, if the Vice-President is not present or is unwilling to act, the directors present may appoint 1 of their number to be chair of the meeting and in default of their doing so the members present may appoint any 1 of their number to be chair of the meeting.

- 99.3 The chair must adjourn a meeting of the Company's members if the members present with a majority of votes at the meeting agree or direct that the chair must do so.

100 Business at Adjourned Meetings

[replaceable rule 249W(2)]

- 100.1 Only unfinished business is to be transacted at a meeting resumed after an adjournment.

PROXIES AND BODY CORPORATE REPRESENTATIVES

101 Who Can Appoint a Proxy

[compare mandatory rule 249X]

- 101.1 A member who is entitled to attend and cast a vote at a meeting of the Company's members may appoint a person as the member's proxy to attend and vote for the member at the meeting. The proxy need not be a member.

102 Rights of Proxies

[compare section 249Y]

- 102.1 A proxy appointed to attend and vote for a member has the same rights as the member:
- (a) to speak at the meeting;
 - (b) to vote (but only to the extent allowed by the appointment); and
 - (c) to join in a demand for a poll.
- 102.2 If a proxy is only for a single meeting it may be used at any postponement or adjournment of that meeting, unless the proxy states otherwise.
- 102.3 A proxy's authority to speak and vote for a member at a meeting is suspended while the member is present at the meeting.
- 102.4 A proxy may be revoked at any time by notice in writing to the Company.

103 When Proxy Form Must Be Sent to All Members

[section 249Z]

- 103.1 If the Company sends a member a proxy appointment form for a meeting or a list of persons willing to act as proxies at a meeting:
- (a) if the member requested the form or list - the Company must send the form or list to all members who ask for it and who are entitled to appoint a proxy to attend and vote at the meeting; or
 - (b) otherwise - the Company must send the form or list to all its members entitled to appoint a proxy to attend and vote at the meeting.

104 Appointing a Proxy

[compare section 250A]

- 104.1 An appointment of a proxy is valid if it is signed by the member making the appointment and contains the following information:
- (a) the member's name and address;
 - (b) the Company's name;
 - (c) the proxy's name or the name of the office held by the proxy; and
 - (d) the meetings at which the appointment may be used.

An appointment may be a standing one.

- 104.2 An undated appointment is taken to have been dated on the day it is given to the Company.
- 104.3 An appointment may specify the way the proxy is to vote on a particular resolution. If it does:
- (a) the proxy need not vote on a show of hands, but if the proxy does so, the proxy must vote that way;
 - (b) if the proxy has 2 or more appointments that specify different ways to vote on the resolution - the proxy must not vote on a show of hands;
 - (c) if the proxy is the chair - the proxy must vote on a poll, and must vote that way;
 - (d) if the proxy is not the chair - the proxy need not vote on a poll, but if the proxy does so, the proxy must vote that way.

If a proxy is also a member, this rule 104.3 does not affect the way that the person can cast any votes the person holds as a member.

- 104.4 An appointment does not have to be witnessed.

104.5 A later appointment revokes an earlier one if both appointments could not be validly exercised at the meeting.

105 Form of Proxy Sent Out by Company

105.1 A form of proxy sent out by the Company may be in a form determined by the directors but must:

- (a) enable the member to specify the manner in which the proxy must vote in respect of a particular transaction; and
- (b) leave a blank for the member to fill in the name of the person primarily appointed as proxy.

105.2 The form may provide that if the member leaves it blank as to the person primarily appointed as proxy or if the person or persons named as proxy fails or fail to attend, the chair of the meeting is appointed proxy.

105.3 Despite rule 105.1 an instrument appointing a proxy may be in the following form or in a form that is as similar to the following form as the circumstances allow:

INTERNATIONAL YOUNG PROFESSIONALS FOUNDATION

ACN 098 340 124

I/We, _____ of _____, being a member/members of the abovenamed company, appoint _____ of _____ or, in his or her absence, _____ of _____ as my/our proxy to vote for me/us on my/our behalf at the *annual general/*general meeting of the company to be held on _____ and at any adjournment of that meeting.

† This form is to be used *in favour of/*against the resolution.

Signed on _____ .

* Strike out whichever is not desired.

† To be inserted if desired.

106 Receipt of Proxy Documents

[compare section 250B]

106.1 For an appointment of a proxy for a meeting of the Company's members to be effective, the following documents must be received by the Company at least 24 hours before the meeting:

- (a) the proxy's appointment; and

- (b) if the appointment is signed by the appointor's attorney - the authority under which the appointment was signed or a certified copy of the authority.

106.2 If a meeting of the Company's members has been adjourned, an appointment and any authority received by the Company at least 24 hours before the resumption of the meeting are effective for the resumed part of the meeting.

106.3 The Company receives an appointment or authority when it is received at any of the following:

- (a) the Company's registered office;
- (b) a facsimile number at the Company's registered office; or
- (c) a place, facsimile number or electronic mail address specified for the purpose in the notice of meeting.

106.4 An appointment of a proxy is ineffective if:

- (a) the Company receives either or both the appointment or authority at a fax number or electronic address; and
- (b) a requirement (if any) in the notice of meeting that:
 - (1) the transmission be verified in a way specified in the notice; or
 - (2) the proxy produce the appointment and authority (if any) at the meeting; is not complied with.

107 Validity of Proxy Vote

[section 250C(1) and compare replaceable rule 250C(2)]

107.1 A proxy who is not entitled to vote on a resolution as a member may vote as a proxy for another member who can vote if the appointment specifies the way the proxy is to vote on the resolution and the proxy votes that way.

107.2 Unless the Company has received written notice of the matter before the start or resumption of the meeting at which a proxy votes, a vote cast by the proxy will be valid even if, before the proxy votes:

- (a) the appointing member dies;
- (b) the member is mentally incapacitated;
- (c) the member revokes the proxy's appointment; or
- (d) the member revokes the authority under which the proxy was appointed by a 3rd party.

108 Body Corporate Representative

[section 250D]

108.1 A body corporate may appoint an individual as a representative to exercise all or any of the powers the body corporate may exercise:

- (a) at meetings of the Company's members;
- (b) at meetings of creditors or debenture holders; or
- (c) relating to resolutions to be passed without meetings.

The appointment may be a standing one.

108.2 The appointment may set out restrictions on the representative's powers. If the appointment is to be by reference to a position held, the appointment must identify the position.

108.3 A body corporate may appoint more than 1 representative but only 1 representative may exercise the body's powers at any one time.

108.4 Unless otherwise specified in the appointment, the representative may exercise, on the body corporate's behalf, all of the powers that the body could exercise at a meeting or in voting on a resolution.

109 Attorney of Member

109.1 An attorney for a member may do whatever the member could do personally as a member, but if the attorney is to vote at a meeting of members or a class of members the instrument conferring the power of attorney or a certified copy of the authority must be produced to the Company at least 24 hours before the meeting, in the same way as the appointment of a proxy.

VOTING AT MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

110 How Vote May Be Exercised

110.1 Subject to rules 111 and 112 at any general meeting of members, each full member and each life member present has 1 vote on a show of hands and on a poll.

110.2 The vote may be exercised in person or by proxy, body corporate representative or attorney.

111 Voting Disqualification

111.1 A member is not entitled to vote at a general meeting if:

- (a) the annual subscription of the member; or
- (b) in the case of a person who is a nominated representative, the annual subscription of the corporate member for which he or she is the nominated representative; is more than 1 month in arrears at the date of the meeting or the postponed or adjourned meeting.

112 Objections to Right to Vote

[compare replaceable rule 250G]

112.1 A challenge to a right to vote at a meeting of members:

- (a) may only be made at the meeting; and
- (b) must be determined by the chair, whose decision is final.

112.2 A vote not disallowed following the challenge is valid for all purposes.

113 How Voting is Carried Out

[compare replaceable rule 250J, section 251A]

113.1 A resolution put to the vote at a meeting of the Company's members must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is demanded.

113.2 On a show of hands, a declaration by the chair is conclusive evidence of the result. Neither the chair nor the minutes need to state the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour or against.

114 Matters on Which a Poll May Be Demanded

[compare section 250K]

114.1 A poll may be demanded on any resolution.

114.2 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

115 When a Poll is Effectively Demanded

[compare section 250L]

115.1 At a meeting of the Company's members, a poll may be demanded by:

- (a) at least 3 members entitled to vote on the resolution; or

- (b) the chair.

115.2 The poll may be demanded:

- (a) before a vote is taken;
- (b) before the voting results on a show of hands are declared; or
- (c) immediately after the voting results on a show of hands are declared.

116 When and How Polls Must Be Taken

[compare replaceable rule 250M]

116.1 A poll demanded on a matter other than the election of a chair or the question of an adjournment must be taken when and in the manner the chair directs.

116.2 A poll on the election of a chair or on the question of an adjournment must be taken immediately.

116.3 The demand for a poll does not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded.

116.4 The result of the poll is the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

117 Chair's Casting Vote

[compare replaceable rule 250E(3)]

117.1 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chair of the meeting has a casting vote in addition to any vote he or she may have in his or her capacity as a member or proxy.

117.2 The chair has a discretion both as to use of the casting vote and as to the way in which it is used.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

[compare section 250N]

118 Business of an Annual General Meeting

[compare sections 250R, 250S and 250T]

118.1 The business of an annual general meeting may include any of the following, even if not referred to in the notice of meeting:

- (a) the consideration of the annual financial report, directors' report and auditor's report;
- (b) the election of directors;

- (c) the appointment of the auditor; and
 - (d) the fixing of the auditor's remuneration.

All other business transacted at an annual general meeting and all other business transacted at any other general meeting is special business.

- 118.2 The business of the annual general meeting also includes any other business which under this constitution or the Law ought to be transacted at an annual general meeting.
- 118.3 The chair of the annual general meeting must allow a reasonable opportunity for the members as a whole at the meeting to ask questions about or make comments on the management of the Company.
- 118.4 If the Company's auditor or the auditor's representative is at the meeting, the chair of an annual general meeting must allow a reasonable opportunity for the members as a whole at the meeting to ask the auditor or that representative questions relevant to the conduct of the audit and the preparation and content of the auditor's report.

119 Resolutions Proposed by Members

[compare section 249O]

- 119.1 No member may at any meeting move any resolution relating to special business unless:
 - (a) the member has given not less than 30 business days' previous notice in writing of the member's intention to move an ordinary resolution or 2 months' notice in writing of the member's intention to move a special resolution at the meeting by leaving the notice and a signed copy of the resolution at the registered office of the Company; or
 - (b) the resolution has previously been approved by the directors.
- 119.2 Upon receiving a notice referred to in rule 119.1(a) the Secretary must:
 - (a) if the notice convening the meeting has already been despatched, immediately notify the members of the proposed resolution; or
 - (b) otherwise include notice of the proposed resolution in the notice convening the meeting.

MINUTES

120 Minutes to be Kept

[compare section 251A]

- 120.1 The directors must keep minute books in which they record within 1 month:
- (a) proceedings and resolutions of meetings of the Company's members;
 - (b) proceedings and resolutions of directors' meetings (including meetings of a committee of directors);
 - (c) resolutions passed by members without a meeting; and
 - (d) resolutions passed by directors without a meeting.
- 120.2 The directors must ensure that minutes of a meeting are signed within a reasonable time after the meeting by 1 of the following:
- (a) the chair of the meeting; or
 - (b) the chair of the next meeting.
- 120.3 The directors must ensure that minutes of the passing of a resolution without a meeting are signed by a director within a reasonable time after the resolution is passed.
- 120.4 Without limiting rule 120.1 the directors must record in the minute books:
- (a) all appointments of officers and executive employees;
 - (b) the names of the directors and alternate directors present at all meetings of directors and the Company; and
 - (c) the method by which a meeting of directors was held.

ACCOUNTS, AUDIT AND RECORDS

121 Accounts

[compare sections 285-297, 314-317]

- 121.1 The directors must cause proper accounting and other records to be kept in accordance with the Law.
- 121.2 The directors must distribute copies of every profit and loss account, balance sheet and statement of cash flows (including every document required by law to be attached to them) as required by the Law.

122 Audit

[compare sections 301, 327-331]

122.1 A registered company auditor must be appointed.

122.2 The remuneration of the auditor must be fixed and the auditor's duties regulated in accordance with the Law.

EXECUTION OF DOCUMENTS

123 Common Seal

123.1 The Company may, but need not, have a common seal.

124 Use of Common Seal

[compare sections 127(2) and 129(6)]

124.1 If the Company has a common seal the directors must provide for its safe custody.

124.2 The common seal may not be fixed to any document except by the authority of a resolution of the directors or of a committee of the directors duly authorised by the directors.

124.3 The Company executes a document with its common seal if the fixing of the seal is witnessed by:

- (a) 2 directors of the Company; or
- (b) a director and a company Secretary of the Company.

125 Execution of Documents Without Common Seal

[compare section 127(1) and 129(5)]

125.1 The Company may execute a document without using a common seal if the document is signed by:

- (a) 2 directors of the Company; or
- (b) a director and a company Secretary of the Company.

126 Execution of Document as a Deed

[compare section 127(3)]

126.1 The Company may execute a document as a deed if the document is expressed to be executed as a deed and is executed in accordance with rule 124 or rule 125.

127 Execution - General

[compare sections 129(5), 129(6) and 127(4)]

- 127.1 The same person may not sign in the dual capacities of director and Secretary.
- 127.2 A director may sign any document as director, with or without the common seal, although the document relates to a contract, arrangement, dealing or other transaction in which he or she is interested and his or her signature complies with the requirements of this constitution as to execution despite his or her interest.
- 127.3 Rules 124 and 125 do not limit the ways in which the directors may authorise documents (including deeds) to be executed on behalf of the Company.

INADVERTENT OMISSIONS

128 Formalities Omitted

[compare section 1322]

- 128.1 If some formality required by this constitution is inadvertently omitted or is not carried out the omission does not invalidate anything, including any resolution, which but for the omission would have been valid unless it is proved to the satisfaction of the directors that the omission has directly prejudiced any member financially. The decision of the directors is final and binding on all members.

WINDING UP

129 Alterations

- 129.1 If the Company is approved as a public benevolent institution by the Australian Taxation Office, the Australian Taxation Office must be notified in writing of any alterations to this constitution.

130 Winding Up

- 130.1 If upon the winding up or dissolution of the Company any property remains, after satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, that property must not be paid to or distributed among the members of the Company but must be given or transferred to some other institution or institutions determined by the members of the Company at or before the time of dissolution which has similar objects to the Company and which is approved by the Commissioner of Taxation as a public benevolent institution for the purposes of any Commonwealth Taxation Act.

130.2 If the members do not make the necessary determination under rule 130.1, the Company may apply to the Supreme Court to determine the institution or institutions.

SIGNING

131 Signing

131.1 The persons whose names are written below agree to this constitution and to be members of the Company.
